Art Party!

Friday, November 3, 5-7 p.m.

Flower Mound is home to a wealth of artistic talent! At the third annual "Art Party!" celebrating Art Month, residents will get a small sample of all that our local artists have to offer. This after-hours celebration will feature works by Flower Mound students in LISD, along with pieces by local seniors, and members of the Cross Timbers Artists' Guild. Enjoy performances by local choirs, and witness the Library's unveiling of a recent project to digitize back issues of the Cross Timbers Gazette. This new online resource will give historians, researchers, and students the ability to access information about Flower Mound and the surrounding communities. Cake and punch will be served.

International Games Day

Saturday, November 4, 12-4 p.m.

The Library is hosting a local instance of "International Games Week @ Your Library!" On this day, bring your family and friends to this table top and card gaming open house. Play old favorites or learn a new game! Choose a game from the library's collection or bring a game from home to share.

Important Conversations Between Adult Children and Their Parents

Monday, November 6, 7 p.m.

As parents age, families must work together to tackle big questions. Helping a senior decide if and when to move, whether they should stop driving, or how to tackle a medical issue requires tough conversations for the entire family. Cindy Gordon, a University of North Texas Communications Professor, will show participants how to communicate as a family to tackle these big issues. Adult children and their parents are encouraged to attend together. To register, please call 972-874-6165 or email fmpl@flower-mound.com.

Photographing Your Family

Saturday, November 11, 2 p.m.

Join local photographer Jen Brown for an informative class to learn tips, tricks, and methods to improve your skills. The class is geared towards parents and grandparents wanting to capture memories of kids and families through photography. Ms. Brown will explain lighting, composition, getting natural smiles from children, cell phones photos, popular editing apps, and more! Please bring a camera and/or cell phone to the class. To register, call 972-874-6165 or email fmpl@flower-mound.com.

Lee Harvey Oswald: An Argument for the Lone Gunman

Monday, November 13, 7 p.m.

"Lee Harvey Oswald: An Argument for the Lone Gunman" discusses the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, subsequent investigations, and conspiracy theories surrounding the event. Former FMHS Assistant Principal and historian Joe Bracket presents why he believes the evidence best supports the single shooter theory and the evolution of his position regarding who shot JFK. To register, please call 972-874-6165 or email fmpl@flower-mound.com.
