Create a Reverse Decoupage Glass Plate

Monday, September 16, 1 p.m. or 7 p.m.

Local craft teacher Sharon Oels Martyn will demonstrate how to create a decorative plate using patterned tissue paper, napkins, stickers, and found objects while sharing decoupage tips and tricks. The class is free to attend for anyone ages 13 and older and all supplies will be provided. To register for either session, please call 972.874.6165 or email fmpl@flower-mound.com.

Let's Talk College

Tuesday, September 17, 7 p.m.

Do you know what it really takes to get into college? Erika Dietz of Guru Academic Advising will discuss college planning and what students can do to make their college applications stand out from the pack. Students and parents will leave with information that will empower them to tackle the process of getting into college with less stress and better results. To register for either session, please call 972.874.6165 or email fmpl@flower-mound.com. This program will be repeated on Tuesday, October 15.

Rainwater Harvesting

Monday, September 23, 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Think big and save big on your water bill! This program covers design, construction, maintenance and benefits of a large rainwater collection system. Participants will learn how to calculate rainwater capture, and how to design an above-ground collection system for your home, ranch or business's outdoor water needs. Presented by the Texas A&M AgriLife Research and Extension Center at Dallas and sponsored by the Upper Trinity Regional Water District. To register, please call 972.874.6165 or email fmpl@flower-mound.com.

Screech Owls in Our Neighborhood (Part of the Wild About Flower Mound Series)

September 24, 7 p.m.

Want to attract the smallest of our native owls to live in your neighborhood? Learn about these tiny owls, how to build or purchase a screech owl box, and how to place it to encourage owls to call it home. Jim Simpkins, owl enthusiast and founder of the "Screech Owls of Flo Mo" social media group, will lead the presentation. This event is co-sponsored by The Flower Mound Foundation. To register, please call 972.874.6165 or email fmpl@flower-mound.com.
